Introduction to Russian Language Program

This course is designed for beginners in Russian and it aims to teach elementary Russian vocabulary and grammar. This course is primarily language course, but other related knowledge, such as Russian culture, history, geography, society and geopolitical information, is integrated with course materials.

RSSU International Summer Camp 2015 Cultural Program

Inside the Kremlin

The official residence of the Russian President and an impressive fortified complex composed of four palaces, four cathedrals and the oldest museums with National Treasury.

Red Square walk

The iconic square, with all the greatest sights and attractions, the first place in Moscow you must visit. Let's figure out why its "Red"?

Inside the St. Basil Cathedral

Who wouldn't recognize the classic onion shaped domes in their lively colors? Let's go inside and see the interiors as well!

Bird's eye panorama view on Moscow!

Let's go up the world's fourth tallest TV Tower of 540 m above the ground and enjoy 360° panorama from observation deck with glass floor!

The oldest art street: Arbat

One of oldest streets in Moscow, dating back to 15th century lined with many little souvenir shops and historic buildings.

Tsaritsino Park

The place begins its history right from the 16th century and along with park itself is a real beauty with a rich historic legacy.

Underground Palace? Moscow Metro!

The Moscow metro is commonly regarded as having the most beautiful stations in the world. Let's check this out together!

Moscow-River Cruise

The routes of the cruises pass the main historic landmarks of the city. One can enjoy superb views of Russia's capital, gliding smoothly through the heart of the city.

And many more...

Workshops

Matryoshka painting workshop

RSSU invites everybody to learn about the rich folk tradition of Russian Matryoshka (wooden nesting doll) painting. Participants will hear the story of the Matryoshka doll and will learn about her traditional Russian dress and customs. Traditional Russian painting techniques and floral and berry designs are also introduced.

Russian pancakes workshop

Join faculty and students for a Russian pancake-making (blini) workshop. Learn how to make the traditional pancakes with various toppings and wonderful stories about the tradition. For example, did you know that a pancake has its symbolic meaning of the Sun?
